FACIALS

Biocol Facials

Biocol Marine is a state of the art skin care system that features highly concentrated marine collagen. It is already recognised by leading cosmetic surgeons and dermatologists for it's profound healing properties. It's unique blend has 80% collagen. This fabulous treatment to cleanse, nourish and regenerate even the most problematic of skin, leaving it smoother, firmer and more radiant in an instant. After your treatment, your skin will feel totally revitalised and glowing.

Your treatment will start with two cleanses and a toner to enable us to complete a skin analysis. After a gentle exfoliation we will begin the deep cleansing process with a steam and extraction of congested pores. A pressure point massage will nearly send you off to sleep while we apply the revolutionary Biocol serum specific to your skins needs. Then enjoy a full facial massage before we apply the Biocol mask. Your skin will feel absolutely amazing after this treatment...serious pampering!
